IN BRIEF

On the top floor of an elegant 1880s bourgeois building with an elevator, in the heart of Nice, this 163 sq m (197 sq m floor area) duplex apartment offers a bright, dual-aspect living space and is just steps from the tram and Place Wilson.

This exceptional property was once the French Riviera residence of a renowned Swedish contemporary artist, a detail that speaks volumes about the unique character of this location.

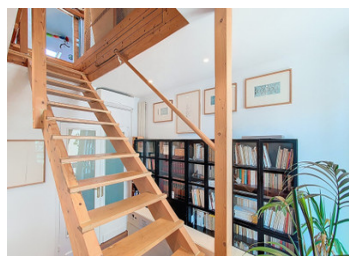

A cellar completes this rare property, which combines spaciousness, light, tranquility, and an exceptional location.

DESCRIPTION

From the moment you enter, the common areas set the tone: a skylight on the landing floods the space with beautiful natural light.

On the first floor, the fully air-conditioned apartment offers a spacious entrance hall, a living room, a dining room, a kitchen/dining room that can be opened to the living room, a bedroom, a separate toilet, a large marble bathroom, and a studio apartment with a bedroom, kitchenette, bathroom, and toilet. Ample storage is provided. Three balconies extend the living areas. The bedrooms, overlooking the courtyard, guarantee absolute tranquility in the heart of the city.

On the upper floor, accessible via a private internal staircase, lies a truly additional space comprising an office, a studio, a sleeping area with a bathroom and toilet, and plenty of storage. Warm and bright, this floor offers significant potential for customization/a creative space, additional bedrooms, or a master suite.
