IN BRIEF

This 115 m<sup>2</sup> apartment sits on the 4th floor (elevator) in a beautiful, recently renovated dressed-stone building. All the hallmarks of Haussmann period architecture are present, rich mouldings, intricate panel work, original parquet floor and marble fireplaces enhanced by 3-metre ceilings and 10 m<sup>2</sup> of windows that flood the living rooms with light. The entrance leads to the two reception rooms (40m<sup>2</sup>), three good-sized bedrooms overlooking a quiet courtyard, with the option to create a fourth bedroom or office. The apartment includes a large bathroom to redecorate or reconfigure into two shower rooms, separate WC, and a kitchen requiring an update or even opening up to the living areas as some other owners in the building have done. This formerly rented apartment oozes class and character in the heart of a neighbourhood perfectly served by metro, RER and...

DESCRIPTION

This six-storey building boasts a prime location close to Gare de Lyon transport links but sheltered from its bustle. The Marais, the Coulée Verte (Paris' green walkway), the Botanical Gardens (Jardin des Plantes) and Opéra Bastille are all within easy reach, as is the Aligre foodmarket (one of Paris' best, open 6 days a week), local restaurants on the newly pedestrianised rue Traversière and the shops of rue du Faubourg Saint-Antoine—all easily accessible on foot.

The building is secured by two entry codes and an intercom and benefits from a bicycle/stroller storage room. The co-ownership of 12 apartments is made up mainly of owner-occupiers and is very well managed: courtyard façade renovated in 2025, street façade in 2021, and lift refurbishment already approved and paid for in 2026.
