IN BRIEF

How could one not fall under the spell of this impressive manor house, rising four stories high, boasting two immense terraces, and facing south onto a majestic, richly wooded, and perfectly manicured park?

We access the property via a service driveway. A charming electric gate opens before us, revealing the south side of the house, the park, and the pink brick paving. Two automatic shutters conceal a large garage with a tiled floor. From there, we enter the garden level, into a spacious room, currently used as a laundry room.

A magnificent wooden staircase leads us to the first floor, where we find two reception rooms, a kitchen with a pantry, and a WC.

The same staircase then leads to the second floor, where we discover three bedrooms, a shower room, a bathroom, and a WC.
