IN BRIEF

A highly versatile country property of 187m² comprising an authentic stone cottage, a connecting beautifully converted section of an adjoining barn, and a substantial remaining barn offering further potential. The original cottage retains its character with exposed stone walls, timber beams, wooden floors and an impressive fireplace, and provides three bedrooms and two bathrooms. The adjoining converted barn offers two bedrooms, a bathroom, a spacious sitting room with wood-burning stove, and large glazed south-facing doors opening onto the garden with views across open countryside towards a château.

The property benefits from a 10m x 5m swimming pool and a large unconverted section of the barn. Beautifully planted mature gardens with cottage style flowers, bread oven building and private parking. Situated within the Limousin Natural Park, the property is ideally placed to enjoy the area's beautiful countryside, with numerous walking...
