NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Nestled in the charming hamlet of La Gittaz, just a few minutes from the centre of Méribel, this characterful apartment enjoys a peaceful setting, abundant sunshine and stunning panoramic mountain views. Occupying the garden level of a small residence of only seven apartments, it offers a rare sense of space, privacy and connection with the surrounding alpine landscape.

One of the property's standout features is its beautiful south-west-facing garden of approximately 20 m². Bathed in sunshine throughout the day and overlooking the valley and surrounding peaks, it provides the perfect setting for outdoor dining, relaxing after a day on the slopes, or simply enjoying the tranquillity of mountain life.

Offering excellent value compared to properties in the heart of the resort, this apartment combines the charm of an authentic alpine village with easy access to Méribel's world-class skiing, shops, restaurants and amenities. The environment is peaceful, family-friendly and wonderfully preserved.
