DESCRIPTION

In a preserved, peaceful, and green setting, discover this remarkable stone real estate ensemble full of character, typical of the Périgord Noir region.

Organized around a pleasant courtyard enclosed by beautiful stone walls, this authentic property immediately captivates with its charm, its peaceful atmosphere, and the quality of its traditional buildings. A rare opportunity for a family project, a prestigious second home, or the development of a tourist accommodation business.

A property with multiple possibilities:

A main house offering a comfortable living environment with a spacious living area of approximately 35 m², three bedrooms including a master suite with shower room and dressing room, a bathroom, attic, and cellar – oil and electric heating.

In addition, several independent buildings make it possible to immediately consider running a gîte or tourist accommodation business:

An adjoining single-storey house offering a living area with open-plan kitchen, two bedrooms, and a bathroom – electric heating.

A charming house featuring an authentic “cantou” fireplace, offering a kitchen, a bathroom, a bedroom on the ground floor, and a second bedroom upstairs with a pleasant terrace – oil heating.

Functional outbuildings including a laundry room, storage space, a drying room, and a covered shelter.

The layout of the buildings around the courtyard ensures independence and privacy for each unit, a particularly valuable asset for hospitality or tourism activities.

A strong tourism potential
