NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Set in the charming village of Saint-Pardoux-Corbier directly opposite a picturesque fishing lake, this impressive detached four-bedroom home offers generous living space, extensive grounds and a very good quality of life in one of southwest France's most sought after rural settings.

Designed for comfortable family living and entertaining, the property features a newly fitted spacious kitchen, large utility room, an elegant lounge, ground-floor bedroom suite with dressing room, bathroom with a shower and jacuzzi bath and a downstairs cloakroom. Upstairs are three further bedrooms, a family bathroom and another beautiful lounge.

Outside, the property continues to impress with a large swimming pool, a substantial outdoor dining terrace, seating eight and a three-car carport, all set within beautifully spacious grounds offering privacy and tranquillity.

Just a five minute walk away is the village's Michelin rated restaurant, along with a traditional bar/tabac and an artisan bakery offering sourdough bread, croissants and pastries.

The renowned equestrian town of Amac-Pompadour, home to France's National Stud, race meetings and dressage events is approximately 15 minutes away, while supermarkets in Lubersac are 4 kms away. A doctor and dentist are in Lubersac (3-4 km) and a hospital is in Saint-Yrieix-La-Perche (30min by car) or Brive-La-Gaillarde (40min by car) or Limoges (45min by car). Limoges with its international trains and its airport with convenient U.K. connections is an approx 55 minutes drive by car.

During July and August, the village comes alive with a weekly open-air fete, featuring live music, food, barbecues and family entertainment-perfectly...
