DESCRIPTION

The ground floor features a spacious open-plan living and dining area with fitted kitchen, creating over 50 m² of welcoming living space. A ground-floor bedroom with shower room provides flexibility for guests or single-level living, while a utility room adds practicality.

Upstairs, two generous bedroom suites each benefit from their own private bathroom, offering excellent comfort and privacy. A large attic area provides valuable storage space.

Outside, the attractive east/south-facing courtyard offers a private and sheltered setting for outdoor dining, entertaining, or simply enjoying the peaceful surroundings.

Whether you are looking for a permanent residence, an idyllic holiday home or a high-end rental investment, this property offers a combination of location, character and comfort that is increasingly difficult to find.

A rare opportunity to own a piece of Dordogne riverside living in one of the area's most charming settings.
