DESCRIPTION

 UNDER OFFER ***

The house is comprised of

On the Ground Floor

+ Open plan room (approx 40m²) with entrances to the front and rear of the property serving to provide a kitchen/dining area to the rear and a very comfortable lounge. Central to the lounge area is a large traditional fireplace offering an open fire. The front and rear walls of this large living space show the heritage of the building with re-pointed stone walls.

+ Ground floor bedroom (approx 24m²) with a feature fire place.

+ Shower room with WC, with a large walk-in shower with beautiful tiled floor and character exposed re-pointed stone walls.

Custom stairs lead to the first floor where there is:

+ Large mezzanine (approx 20m²) area overlooking the lounge currently used as a visitors bedroom

+ Bedroom 3 (approx 12m²)

Throughout the property the exposed timbers provide evidence of the heritage of the property as an ancient farmers cottage.

To the front of the property is a beautiful shaded garden laid to lawn in which there is located a well for garden use.

To the rear is a larger garden, laid to lawn, of approx 2000m² ideal for a pool and perhaps a vegetable patch and greenhouse.

Attached to the main house is a large stone dependence. Currently accessed externally this has much potential either for transformation into habitable use with the making of an internal connection to the main house or as an independent habitation/gite or studio or just for storage. ...
