AN EXCEPTIONAL RESIDENCE OPPOSITE THE BOIS DE BOULOGNE

Some addresses are simply prestigious — this one is exceptional. On the legendary Boulevard Maurice Barrès, directly facing the Bois de Boulogne and moments from Avenue du Général de Gaulle, this rare 224 m² apartment invites discerning buyers to reimagine luxury living from the ground up. Set on the first floor of a well-maintained 1964 residence with passenger lift and service staircase, it captivates with generous proportions, an average ceiling height of approximately 2.80 m, abundant natural light and remarkable tranquillity — and, more remarkably still, the rare potential to be transformed into an approximately 440 m² duplex by uniting it with the apartment directly above. Six balconies punctuate the dual-aspect layout, including a coveted 13 m² south-facing balcony overlooking the Bois. Inside, a double reception room of approximately 70 m², four bedrooms and an exceptional 44 m² traversing master suite with bathroom, dressing room and private balcony await a bespoke renovation. Complete with underground parking and a private cellar, this is a rare canvas for a truly one-of-a-kind residence.
