NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Montouliers is a charming wine-growing village in the Hérault, surrounded by vineyards and beautiful countryside on the edge of the Minervois region. The village enjoys a peaceful setting while being just 8 km from Capetang, where you'll find supermarkets, cafés, restaurants, banks, schools and a weekly market. Larger towns are also within easy reach: Narbonne is approximately 27 km away, Béziers 30 km, and the Mediterranean beaches around Valras-Plage are about 35 km. The area is popular for walking, cycling and wine tourism, with the famous Canal du Midi just a few kilometres away, making Montouliers an ideal location for both permanent living and holiday homes.
