NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Charming, habitable one bedroom cottage with a new roof comprising of a lounge with wood burner, one bedroom, separate toilette and shower room and kitchenette. The cottage is attached to a large barn and another house which is in need of full renovation (subject to the necessary permissions).

If you are looking for a project in the heart of the French countryside, this could be the property for you.

The site benefits from mains drains and has water, electricity (Linky meter) and fibre internet. The cottage is perfectly suitable for comfortable living onsite whilst renovations are ongoing.

There is the option of linking all the buildings together, or keeping the cottage separate as a gite or extended family. The garden wraps around the buildings with two vehicle accesses, a garden with mature trees giving welcome shade in the summer months.
