NOTES

DESCRIPTION

A Restored Normandy Farmhouse Offering Lifestyle, Income and Development Potential

Hidden within the peaceful Normandy countryside, yet only minutes from excellent transport links and historic landmarks, this exceptional property represents a rare opportunity to acquire a beautifully renovated farmhouse combining character, flexibility and significant future potential.

Occupying an enclosed plot of approximately 2,058m², the property enjoys complete privacy without isolation, offering the perfect balance between rural tranquillity and everyday convenience.

Extending to approximately 260m² of habitable accommodation, the property has been thoughtfully renovated to combine the timeless charm of traditional Normandy architecture with the comfort and efficiency expected of a modern home.

Original fireplaces, exposed beams and period features sit comfortably alongside recently upgraded services, including completely renewed electrical installations, a new microstation drainage system, and preparation for the installation of a heat pump central heating system, providing an excellent foundation for future energy efficiency.

Flexible Accommodation

One of the property's greatest strengths is its remarkable versatility.

The main house provides spacious family accommodation whilst also incorporating independent guest accommodation perfectly suited to tourism or extended family living.

The accommodation currently comprises:

Approximately 260m² of living space
