DESCRIPTION

The main house offers approximately 285m² of accommodation over two floors and retains many original features, including fireplaces and generous room proportions. While some cosmetic updating would enhance the property, it is immediately habitable and offers enormous potential.

The ground floor comprises ;

- * A bright conservatory
- * Large, fully fitted country kitchen with an authentic fireplace
- * Large utility room with independent access - 44m²
- * 2 further large reception rooms
- * A shower room and WC

On the first floor there is a separate 53m² studio apartment benefiting from its own private terrace and independent access, making it ideal for guests or holiday rentals. The remainder of the first floor offers five further bedrooms, a shower room, separate WC and ample storage space.

Outside, the property is surrounded by approximately 2,000m² of beautifully established gardens, planted with mature trees and bordering a charming stream borders the grounds, providing a peaceful atmosphere as well as a practical water source for the garden.

Additional outbuildings include a 21m² garage, 17m² workshop, 6m² storage shed, a terrace for outdoor entertaining, and parking for up to four vehicles, including one covered space.

- * Heating - air source heat pump
- * Drainage - septic tank
