NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Beautifully renovated throughout, this charming detached stone townhouse, dating from 1879, offers 82m² of stylish living space arranged over three floors, seamlessly combining period character with modern comfort.

The ground floor features a bright and welcoming open-plan living, dining and kitchen area, with direct access to the quiet street at the front and a second entrance from the kitchen leading to the rear alleyway, providing practical dual access.

The first floor comprises two bedrooms, including a spacious principal bedroom with a Juliette balcony overlooking the street and a second bedroom currently fitted with bunk beds. A contemporary family bathroom with a bath and shower completes this level. The converted attic on the second floor has been transformed into a delightful third bedroom, ideal for guests or additional family accommodation.

The property has benefited from an extensive renovation, including a completely new roof installed in 2025 with upgraded insulation. New flooring has been laid throughout, together with a full rewire, ensuring excellent comfort and peace of mind for years to come.

Ideally situated just a two-minute walk from the heart of medieval Sarlat-la-Canéda, the property enjoys immediate access to its renowned restaurants, cafés, boutiques and vibrant weekly markets. Convenient public parking is available just opposite the house.

Sarlat is the perfect base from which to explore the spectacular Périgord Noir. The celebrated villages of Domme, La Roque-Gageac, Beynac and Castelnaud-la-Chapelle are all within a short drive, while the magnificent Dordogne Valley offers breathtaking scenery, historic châteaux, riverside beaches, canoeing and...
