DESCRIPTION

This authentic 187 m² character home comes with a remarkable history. Set in a sought-after village close to Aubenas and just a short drive from Vogüé and Balazuc, two of France's officially recognised Most Beautiful Villages, the property enjoys an excellent location surrounded by stunning countryside, walking trails and cycling routes. It is an ideal opportunity for anyone looking for a spacious family home or dreaming of creating a charming guest house with independent holiday accommodation.

Originally the village café at the beginning of the twentieth century, the property still reflects its rich past. Behind its modest façade lie surprisingly generous rooms with high ceilings, an impressive natural stone staircase, beautiful original wooden floors and elegant French doors. Features such as these give the house a warmth and authenticity that have become increasingly rare.

The welcoming entrance hall forms the heart of the house. On the left are the elegant sitting room (20 m²) and lounge (20 m²) overlooking the garden, while to the right are the dining room (23 m²) and the original country kitchen (18 m²), still full of character. A separate cloakroom completes the ground floor. At the end of the hallway, a beautiful stone staircase leads down to the impressive cellar extending beneath the entire house. With full standing height and its own external entrance, it offers numerous practical possibilities.

The magnificent staircase leads to the first floor, where a spacious landing provides access to four generous bedrooms (18/18/18/15 m²), a bathroom...
