DESCRIPTION

This detached 2-bedroom property offers a great opportunity to create a comfortable home in a peaceful hamlet within the popular commune of Saint-Pierre-de-Frugie. Set within its own generous gardens of 2,835m², the property enjoys privacy, space and a quiet rural location.

The main living level offers bright, well-proportioned rooms including a spacious lounge/diner with doors opening onto a balcony, a welcoming kitchen, two good-sized bedrooms and a bathroom. The garden-level accommodation provides valuable additional space, with a garage, a versatile room offering potential for further accommodation, and a utility area with the possibility of creating a kitchen or independent living space.

Requiring some modernisation, this detached home offers excellent potential for those looking to personalise a property while benefiting from generous land, flexible additional space and a peaceful countryside location.

This property benefits from oil-fired central heating. The windows are single glazed with wooden shutters. Sanitation is provided for by a septic tank.

Upon approaching the property, an external staircase leads to the first-floor balcony, providing access to the main entrance. The balcony offers an attractive outlook over the rear garden and the countryside beyond. Entering the property, a corridor gives access to the lounge diner on the left, and the kitchen on the right.

LOUNGE DINER (27.1m²)

The lounge-diner is an open-plan space with a small partition separating the lounge and dining areas. Doors from the dining area lead onto the balcony.

KITCHEN (12.9m²)

A bright and spacious double-aspect kitchen with a door leading to the basement, offering excellent
