NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Situated on the edge of the charming village of Saint-Jory-de-Chalais in the heart of the North Dordogne, this delightful country property enjoys an enviable location within easy walking distance of the village centre, whilst benefiting from stunning, uninterrupted countryside views to the rear. With a bakery and restaurant just a short stroll away, it offers the perfect balance of convenience and rural tranquillity.

Accessed through a large entrance gate, the property opens into a spacious courtyard with ample private parking. The main house stands directly ahead, attached to an impressive stone barn, while opposite is an old farmhouse awaiting complete renovation, offering exciting potential for future development.

The front door opens into a welcoming living room (31 m²), complete with a feature fireplace housing a wood-burning stove and beautiful views across the rear garden. To one side is the spacious kitchen (17.1 m²), which comfortably accommodates a family dining table. On the opposite side of the living room is a generous utility room (16 m²) incorporating a WC. Although currently used as a practical boot room and laundry area, this space offers flexibility for a variety of uses.

Stretching across the rear of the house is a magnificent oak-framed veranda overlooking the swimming pool and gardens beyond. This wonderful outdoor living space is ideal for entertaining, relaxing with family and friends, or simply enjoying the peaceful surroundings and view.

Upstairs, the first floor offers two generous double bedrooms, each measuring approximately 18 m², together with a family bathroom...
