IN BRIEF

This former barn has retained the charm of its original features while offering the comfort of a thoughtfully designed home. The spacious 70 m² living area comprises an open-plan kitchen with a large dining room and, separated by the central fireplace, a living room opening onto the terrace overlooking the 9000 m² tree-lined meadow.

Exposed beams, stone walls and original feeding troughs all contribute to the property's unique character. Modern comforts include double glazing, gas-fired central heating, compliant drainage, and a garage.

Upstairs (also accessible from the lane), there is a beautiful open study space with large picture windows, two bedrooms and a bathroom. One could easily create a third bedroom .

Below the house are a garage and a well. This is a
