DESCRIPTION

You'll discover a bright and welcoming living room opening onto a fully fitted and equipped kitchen, extended with direct access to a delightful terrace—perfect for relaxing or entertaining family and friends.

The sleeping area features three spacious bedrooms, two of which benefit from their own private shower rooms, offering both comfort and privacy. A laundry room and two additional storage/workshop spaces complete the main house.

A real bonus is the independent studio, comprising a living area and a shower room with WC. Ideal for hosting guests, working from home, accommodating family members, or generating rental income.

Outside, you'll enjoy a beautifully landscaped, enclosed garden with private off-street parking.

Tastefully renovated throughout, this home perfectly combines the character of a period property with modern comfort.

Ideally located within walking distance of the town centre, local shops and the beach, this rare property offers an exceptional lifestyle on the Atlantic coast.

A truly charming and fully renovated home, ready to welcome its new owners.
