NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Set in a peaceful, elevated position within a village offering local amenities, this attractive stone property enjoys approximately 10,000m² of grounds with a swimming pool and pétanque court. Situated around 15 minutes from Bergerac, it offers approximately 160m² of habitable accommodation, together with extensive barns and outbuildings.

Dating from approximately 1850, the property comprises a characterful main house, an adjoining single-storey two-bedroom gîte, an independent studio apartment and a separate barn of approximately 75m². Its versatile arrangement makes it ideal as a family home, a multigenerational property or a home with independent guest or rental accommodation.

The main house

The main house is entered through a hallway that leads through to the kitchen.

The ground floor also provides a cosy snug/lounge and a spacious dining and living area of approximately 31m². A fireplace adds warmth and character to the reception space, while a staircase leads from the dining area to the upper floors.

On the first floor is a bedroom, together with a dressing area and a shower room equipped with a shower, washbasin and WC.

The second floor has a characterful attic bedroom.

Adjoining Gite

Adjoining the main house, but arranged as independent single-storey accommodation, is a two-bedroom gîte. It could remain separate for guests or rental purposes or potentially be incorporated into the principal accommodation to create one larger family residence. This annex is suitable for wheelchair use.

The gîte comprises:

An open-plan kitchen, dining and living area

A main bedroom with a door opening directly onto the terrace

A wet room with WC...
