DESCRIPTION

Karen Stride of Leggett Real Estate is delighted to present this beautiful property, set in a peaceful corner of Paradou yet just a few minutes' walk from the village's cafés, restaurants and shops. This beautifully renovated semi-detached mas offers an appealing blend of authentic Provençal character, contemporary comfort and relaxed village living. With its generous garden and charming period features, the property feels wonderfully private while remaining very much connected to the heart of the village.

Dating from 1870, the house was thoughtfully renovated in 2025, with particular care taken to preserve the character and soul of the original building. Decorative floor tiles, exposed beams, stone walls and a traditional fireplace provide a warm reminder of its history, while polished concrete floors, large metal-framed openings and contemporary finishes introduce a fresh and understated elegance.

At the heart of the house is the light-filled open-plan kitchen, dining and living area. Designed as a relaxed and sociable space, it opens directly onto the garden, allowing the interior and exterior to flow naturally together and creating an ideal setting for long lunches, summer dinners and effortless entertaining.

Also on the ground floor is a second sitting room with its own fireplace, offering a more intimate space in which to relax. This room could easily be transformed into an additional bedroom suite, providing useful flexibility for visiting family or guests. A large utility room, incorporating a secondary kitchen and laundry area, together with a guest WC, completes this level.
