NOTES

DESCRIPTION

The property is entered via steps leading to the entrance hall. To one side is a spacious kitchen of approximately 18m², featuring tiled flooring and wooden units. From the rear of the kitchen, a further area leads to a shower room with WC and washbasin, together with a bedroom of approximately 17m². There is also a smaller bedroom of around 8m².

From the entrance hall, the dining room provides a lovely reception space of approximately 14m², with exposed beams and attractive wooden flooring. This leads through to a comfortable living room of around 14.5m², again featuring exposed beams and wooden floors, together with a wood-burning stove.

A further ground-floor bedroom of approximately 10.3m² is located to the rear of the living room, making the ground floor particularly versatile for family living or for accommodating guests.

Upstairs, the first-floor landing retains the property's character with exposed beams. There is a bathroom of approximately 7m² with a roll-top bath, WC and washbasin. A corridor leads to another bedroom/office of 8m² as well as a larger bedroom of around 16m² with exposed beams and wooden flooring.

The property benefits from double glazing throughout.

Outside, there are terraces to both the front and rear of the house. The rear wooden terrace overlooks an attractive ornamental garden and an out of ground sunken pool, while steps lead up to a raised balcony, creating several pleasant areas for outdoor dining and entertaining.

Beneath the house is a useful cellar providing generous storage space as well as...
