DESCRIPTION

This attractive and versatile property offers an impressive combination of a main residence, two independent gîte accommodations, a covered heated swimming pool, extensive parkland and gardens, a fisherman's cabin, and three private fishing lakes.

The property is approached through electric gates, opening onto a beautiful parkland setting. A tree-lined driveway leads through the grounds towards the lakes and the extensive land beyond, creating a wonderful sense of privacy and space.

Main House

The main house is accessed from the terrace adjoining the 10m x 5m swimming pool.

At the centre of the home is an impressive 76m² open-plan kitchen, living and dining area, providing a bright and welcoming space for both everyday living and entertaining. The room features exposed wooden beams, tiled flooring and a contemporary central wood-burning stove. The kitchen has white cupboard units and black marbled worktops, a Lacanche Range cooker, extractor fan and a central island.

Large glazed doors open directly onto the covered and heated swimming pool, ideal for year-round use. From the rear of the living area, a separate entrance leads to a guest bedroom of approximately 11.7m², together with a 7.5m² en-suite bathroom featuring a tiled walk-in shower and vanity unit, as well as a separate WC.

A tiled staircase rises from the main living area to the first floor.

The first floor opens onto a remarkable 43.7m² mezzanine, currently used as an office. This versatile space could also provide an additional sitting or living area, or potentially be converted to create a further en-suite bedroom.
