DESCRIPTION

This charming authentic house is set in a peaceful hamlet within the commune of Bussière-Galant.

Upon entering, you are welcomed into a spacious and cozy living room featuring a impressive wood-burning stove. Opposite the living room is a semi-open kitchen and dining space, fully equipped for modern living. Under the kitchen area there is a cave with concrete floor.

Adjacent to the main house, with direct access from the garden, is an independent section. This space is ideal for creating a ground-floor bedroom suite, a guest gîte, or private accommodation for family and friends.

On the first floor, the property comprises two bright bedrooms and a bathroom.

Directly attached to the residence is a substantial barn of over 200 m², offering endless possibilities for storage, a workshop, or potential expansion.

Outside, the rear garden features an 8x4 m swimming pool with panoramic views over the countryside. The grounds also include three small outbuildings, one currently utilized as an artist's studio. For convenience and security, the property is fully enclosed with two electric gates operating at the touch of a button.
