NOTES

DESCRIPTION

What better location to profit from the tourist trade in the world renowned medieval cité of Carcassonne?

Tucked away across a quiet square behind the lively Rue Trivalle, only a few hundred metres from the walls of the medieval cité, lies this apartment ready to be rented out. This is a great budget buy which could bring in a good rental income all year round.

The apartment is on the first floor, entered via an outside staircase and a communal entrance lobby. Once inside, the living room with large picture window offers superb views of the cité. There is a cosy mezzanine bedroom, a kitchen, bathroom and separate WC.

There is also a third share of the cellar, useful for storage (5m2 approx).

Private parking space immediately outside the entrance.
