IN BRIEF

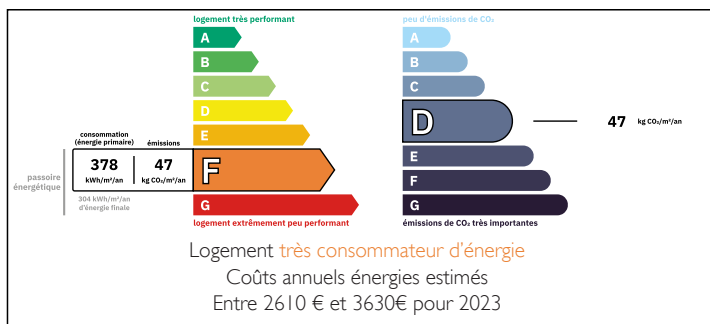

Set in a rural position just a short drive from Eymet, this stone property full of character offers a large garden, countryside views and flexible living space. Its two separate entrances provide potential for a home business or guest accommodation.

Inside, the welcoming lounge has a wood-burning stove, and french doors leading directly out to the terrace, while the kitchen and dining area provide space for everyday living. There are four bedrooms, two bathrooms, one of which has been recently renovated, plus a study. The property also benefits from a garage adding useful storage or workshop space.

Outside, stone walls surround the swimming pool, creating an inviting place to enjoy summer days. Several outdoor seating areas offer spots for dining or relaxing, while the large garden opens out to lovely views across the surrounding countryside. Less than 30 minutes to...
