DESCRIPTION

Within 200 metres of the Canal du Midi, in this pretty Minervois village with gallo-roman antecedents, there are plenty of amenities within walking distance, and this characterful house gives you comfortable accommodation whether for a full-time family home, holiday home or gîte to let out.

The front entrance door opens into a lobby, which leads into the main living space of 30m². This includes the smart white Maxima kitchen with its integrated units - oven, fridge, freezer, extractor, dishwasher and induction hob. The kitchen window has a solar-powered roller shutter.

A large woodburning stove acts as a focal point for the sitting area, and a ceiling fan gives a tropical feeling to the room. From here, the staircase leads up to a landing giving access to the wonderful modern bathroom, with its stylish bath, its basin built into a gorgeous curving cupboard, a WC to match, and its Italian-style walk-in shower. There is even room for the washing machine and tumble drier.

Next to this is the spacious master bedroom, of 17m² plus 2.3m² of fitted wardrobes. It has two large windows with insulated blinds and timber shutters, and has reversible air-conditioning.

Up a traditional tile and timber staircase, an ample landing space leads to two more bedrooms of 11.6 and 11m² respectively (they are larger, but we only count the area over 1.8m height.) Each has an 'oeil de boeuf' window supplemented by a Velux rooflight, and characterful exposed timber roof beams. At this level...
