NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This former 1930s house was extended and modified in the 1980s; it benefits from a large 57 m² living room opening onto a 20 m² terrace with open-plan kitchen, and a very beautiful fireplace, ideal for winter evenings by the fire. The bedroom and bathroom (to be renovated) can easily be turned into a beautiful master suite.

Upstairs, the two attic bedrooms offer a good surface area of approximately 18 m², but the floor will need renovating, the insulation redone, the bathroom modernised, etc.

The house is built over a large basement (concrete beam-and-block floor) with, in addition, a 28 m² studio opening onto the meadow. It will be easy to plan for a central heating system, and to renovate the electrical installation, plumbing, etc.

In addition, you have a large garage, and a 36 m² barn on the ground over two levels, whose structure is in very good condition.
