DESCRIPTION

This attractive stone property is situated in a peaceful hamlet near Paussac-et-Saint-Vivien and offers plenty of character, spacious accommodation and excellent potential.

The property is entered directly into the 29m² kitchen/dining room, which features a range of fitted units and double doors opening onto the front of the property. Also on the ground floor is an 8.6m² bathroom with bath and shower over, washbasin and a separate WC.

There is a 9.9m² ground-floor bedroom, a large storage room with plumbing for a washing machine and, adjoining the kitchen, a further useful storage/boiler room housing the oil-fired boiler and fuel tank.

Upstairs, there is a generous 31.6m² lounge with an attractive ornamental fireplace, together with four further bedrooms (18m², two of 9m² and 10.5m²). One of the bedrooms benefits from an external stone staircase providing direct access back down to the front of the property.

In front of the house is a substantial barn/garage, offering useful additional storage.

One of the property's most attractive features is the beautiful enclosed courtyard, created within the walls of an old barn, with the original roof removed. This provides a lovely private outdoor space full of character and could be used for outdoor dining, entertaining or simply enjoying the peaceful surroundings.

The property is heated by oil-fired central heating and is connected to mains water and electricity. There is also a fosse septique, which will require upgrading to meet current regulations.

To the rear of the property is a large garden, together with two paddocks, offering...
