NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Charming semi-detached stone house set in a peaceful hamlet, just 3.5 km from the popular market town of Aulnay. Offering generous living space, a south-facing front terrace, larger rear garden and a range of renovation possibilities, this property is ideal for those looking for a character home project in the French countryside.

Set in a small, calm and friendly hamlet, this traditional stone property offers plenty of charm and potential. Renovation work has already been started, although further works will be required to complete the project and bring the house to its full potential.

The ground floor currently offers a spacious 26m² kitchen, a 24m² living room with an insert wood-burning stove, a large 13m² bedroom and a 10m² bathroom. The first floor provides two further bedrooms of approximately 15m² and 25m², with finishing work still required to the plasterboarding in one of the rooms.

Attached to the house is a generous 32m² garage/workshop, providing useful storage and workspace. There is also access to a substantial 40m² room on the first floor, which could be converted into a large additional bedroom or other living accommodation, subject to the necessary works and permissions. This space is already well advanced in its renovation.

Works needed are updating of the septic tank installation, plasterboarding and some electrical work, alongside updates to the kitchen and bathroom. Buyers should anticipate further renovation and finishing work.

Outside, the property benefits from a south-facing terrace garden to the front, perfect for enjoying the sunshine, together with...
