IN BRIEF

Just a short walk from the centre of Nyons, this traditional 1962-built villa enjoys a pleasant garden and a peaceful setting.

Offering approximately 146 m² of living space over two levels, it comprises two independent apartments: a one-bedroom apartment and a two-bedroom apartment, which can also be connected to create a spacious family home. This flexible layout is ideal as a permanent residence, multi-generational home or property with an independent apartment.

Outside, there is a lovely private garden with no overlooking neighbours, two spacious west-facing terraces and a very quiet street.

The villa features central heating via a heat pump, recent double glazing and reversible air conditioning in both living rooms. The roof space has been insulated.

A large garage and cellars complete the property.
