IN BRIEF

Fantastic potential for this beautifully renovated domaine, ideally located just 4km from Paimpol, close to the stunning beaches of Brittany's Goëlo coast & the islands of Bréhat. Set within 1.4 hectares, the property currently operates successfully as a gîte complex, comprising a main house, two tastefully renovated gîtes and a range of outbuildings. The main house offers three floors, with four bedrooms and spacious open-plan living areas, while the first gîte accommodates up to 7 guests and the second up to 5. Previous planning approval has been granted for an additional gîte and camping pitches, offering further development potential subject to reinstatement by the buyer. Practical infrastructure includes mains and well water, a septic system designed for up to 35 people and a water pressure regulator. Overall, an excellent opportunity to continue an established tourism business in a...
