IN BRIEF

An opportunity to acquire an established and well-known wine estate within the Côtes de Duras AOC. Set across approximately 116 hectares, including around 56 hectares of vines planted with a number of grape varieties, the estate combines residential accommodation with extensive wine production and commercial facilities.

At the entrance is an independent three-bedroom cottage, while a separate four-bedroom main house offers considerable potential for renovation.

The estate includes substantial buildings housing offices, bottling and labelling facilities, warehousing and storage. A further building incorporates a customer reception and tasting area together with wine-making vats and additional storage.

With its extensive land, established vineyard and significant infrastructure, the property offers
