NOTES

DESCRIPTION

The ground floor comprises a kitchen and dining area (approx. 19 m²) together with a bathroom. (approx. 3.6 m²). Painted cabinetry, wooden worktops, exposed stonework and a recently tiled floor give the kitchen a pleasing rustic character. The garden dining terrace is directly outside the kitchen entrance making summer meals outdoors particularly convenient.

On the first floor, the spacious living room (approx. 20 m²) features exposed stone walls, substantial timber beams and wooden flooring. With room for generous seating, it provides a comfortable setting for relaxing after a day exploring the surrounding area.

The top floor offers two characterful bedrooms: a double bedroom with its own shower (approx. 13 m²) and a second bedroom (approx. 8 m²) currently arranged as a twin room. Exposed beams add to the cottage atmosphere, while a separate WC with washbasin is situated between the bedrooms.

The approximately 135 m² garden is a delightful outdoor retreat, where stone walls, climbing plants and mature trees create a sheltered setting full of charm. An above-ground swimming pool offers a refreshing dip on summer days, complemented by a wooden deck with seating. A separate lounging area and a charming paved dining terrace beside the kitchen provide inviting spaces for relaxing, entertaining and enjoying meals outdoors.

Currently used as a gîte and offered for holiday rentals by the owners, this appealing property offers a combination of personal holiday enjoyment and the opportunity to continue its seasonal rental use.
