DESCRIPTION

BEAUSOLEIL, AN EXCEPTIONAL PLACE TO LIVE ON THE BORDER WITH MONACO

Situated on the hills above the Principality, between the Mediterranean and the foothills of the Alps, Beausoleil enjoys a privileged location, just a stone's throw away from Monaco. Acting as a true link between the Côte d'Azur and the Principality, the town charms visitors with its residential character, its architectural heritage and its exceptional panoramic views of the Mediterranean.

A town on a human scale, Beausoleil offers a living environment that is both lively and unspoilt. Its town centre is home to local shops, markets, restaurants, schools and everyday amenities, allowing residents to enjoy a friendly local lifestyle whilst benefiting from the appeal and international influence of Monaco.

Its immediate proximity to the Principality is one of Beausoleil's main attractions. In just a few minutes, you can reach Monaco and its many economic, cultural and leisure hubs: business districts, upmarket shops, the harbour, beaches, sports facilities and international events. This prime location makes Beausoleil a particularly sought-after destination for professionals working in Monaco as well as for those wishing to enjoy its exceptional surroundings, whilst benefiting from the lifestyle of a French commune.

Beausoleil also stands out for its remarkable architecture, inherited in particular from the Belle Époque, as well as for its sloping streets offering magnificent views of the sea and the coastline. Numerous vantage points allow visitors to fully appreciate the beauty of the Côte d'Azur landscape, between the town's colourful façades, the surrounding hills and...
